

To The FCC

I selected XM satellite radio to provide me with the flexible and and varied programming unavailable on broadcast radio. I have paid for this service to escape from the mediocracy called broadcast radio. The NAB's selfserving interest conflict with my rights of free choice and individual needs.

I respectfully urge the FCC to reject the NBA's petition 04-160 and support XM's ability to give me the programs I want and deserve.